

BUSINESS ANALYST

Summary of profession

Business analysts analyze the systems and procedures that an organization uses and recommends technology or processes to improve business efficiency and productivity.

Working hours, patterns and environment

Analysts generally work regular business hours, but may have to work evenings and weekends to meet deadlines on projects.

Education and skills

As an aspiring business analyst, you will need a tertiary qualification in one of the following: - business analysis, computing, information systems or business computing.

Job and Growth Opportunities

There is a high demand for business analysts at present. So this field is expected to remain strong in years to come.